24th October 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

PJ Day!

The school has been a riot of colour and cosiness today! The children (and adults) have loved spending the day in their PJs for our Christmas Fair donation day. Thank you for your support; the gifts you have donated will all be utilised as prizes etc for our Christmas Fair stalls.

Parent Consultations

Thank you those who attended this week's parent consultations. I hope you found them informative and that you enjoyed looking at your child's work. Thanks, too, for completing the annual parent survey. As soon as I have collated the results, I will share them with you. If you did not attend parents' evening, a copy of the survey will be sent home to you with your child this afternoon.

My Happy Mind Happiness Heroes

This year, we are establishing a team of My Happy Mind ambassadors, called 'Happiness Heroes'. I would like to thank all the children who applied to be a Happiness Hero; it is great to see such enthusiasm and it was very difficult to choose the team!

In this morning's Celebration Assembly, we congratulated the successful applicants and presented them with their Happiness hero badges. Congratulations to: Amelie, Elsie, Oliver, Alicia, Imogen, Jack, Bella, Ella-Rose and Holly.

I look forward to working with you after half term!

Lost Property

Please be aware that we have already accumulated lots of lost property items this term. Please ensure you name your child's jumpers, cardigans, bottles and belongings so that we can easily reunite lost items with their owners; all items in the Lost Property are unnamed. If your child has lost something at school, please come to the Office after half term and request to look through the Lost Property collection.

I hope you all have a lovely half term break and look forward to seeing everyone again on Monday 3rd November. It promises to be a busy half term, with Christmas preparations beginning in earnest!

Best wishes,

Mrs Keitch

Adventurers (Years 3 and 4) have had a wonderful half term of Forest School . Our final session was great, albeit very wet! We enjoyed a main fire with s'mores and hot chocolate.

Byron - For showing off your whittling skills, remembering safety information and following it, with confidence

Blake and Darcy T - For your team work and creativity, making a rope ladder together and taking turns to support each other when climbing

Imogen A - For recalling lots of safety information when having our big fire. I was really impressed with how much you remembered to keep yourself and others safe

Alicia - For answering questions about how to keep safe when having our big fire
